I support a variation of the conditions which would allow the restaurant to open beyond 6pm. It doesn't seem fair that there are a number of other pubs and restaurants all located in the centre of Marsden and Oi cafe is the only one with restricted opening hours. The primary aim/ focus of the business is as a restaurant and the majority of people who want to eat out will want to do so on an evening. I understand there were initial objections to the business having a licence to sell alcohol and concerns were about an increase in antisocial or drunken behaviour. If that is a concern of people, then it is misdirected at Cafe Oi. People who are likely to be drunk and disorderly or antisocial will be frequenting one of the three other pubs in the village; they are very unlikely to be drinking all evening in this restaurant. In order for this business to be a success, the restaurant needs to be able to stay open beyond 6pm. It would be such a shame to see yet another vacant building in Huddersfield because of unnecessary and disproportionate restrictions.
