I was disappointed that the new restaurant in 9 Peel Street Marsden was only granted licensing hours until 6pm. It is obviously a restaurant, which cannot function purely in daytime hours. It is a venue where I would wish to enjoy good food, with a drink in the evening. It will not be a typical rowdy or unruly place only frequented by drinkers. People wish to have a quiet relaxing meal and a drink. There are a couple of other restaurants that function orderly and have not had similar curtailments imposed. This one offers a different type of food, which will enhance Marsden even more. I am asking if the opening licence can be extended to include evening trade. Thank you.
