Marsden is a vibrant and welcoming village that greatly benefits from the development of innovative small businesses currently operating on Peel St, and elsewhere.

Oi Dumplings presents a complimentary offering, widening the appeal of the village and providing a distinct and contemporary food and drink offer to local residents and visitors.

Small villages must develop to stay relevent and appeal to changing tastes and demographics.

Restaurants must be allowed to operate during normal evening restaurant hours, and should be able to offer alcoholic drinks as part of the food and drink menu.
