It's ludicrous that a cafe restaurant is not allowed to serve food and drink after 6pm. Most people are not home from work before that time and so thus massively limiting the amount of sales for this establishment. If they are not granted permission they will have to close their doors before long. In this climate we should be supporting new businesses to open and flourish. Marsden has many other businesses on this street that are open past 6pm and pose no problem or risk to the local community. There will be no affect to neighbours as people visiting this establishment will be there to enjoy some food and will be respectful when leaving, which again is not going to be early hours of the morning but just after an evening dinner. There will be an absolutely minimal amount of noise, odour or disturbance, versus the gains the community would receive if this establishment is able to thrive.
