I was thrilled to see this business open in Marsden, the village is thriving and all businesses in the area benefit from the variety of hospitality available, which brings in custom to everyone. I was really disappointed to realise that I personally won't be able to support the business as much as I'd like to due to my working, and their current opening, hours. It seems absurd that when there are 3 pubs in very close proximity, this restaurant should be penalised by legislation requiring them to close before most of their potential customers eat. This is not a bar/ pub or club, it is simply a local restaurant that is providing new and exciting options to residents. The opportunity to have longer opening hours will only ensure the success of this, and other businesses in Marsden. It is my opinion that this restaurant does not pose a risk of rowdiness or excessive noise. In the context of its position on the high street, between 3 pubs with other local restaurants on the same street, I am fully supportive of extending its opening hours so that I can give them my custom.
