Marsden is a thriving community. This is partly driven by the range of establishments to visit. This venue offers a unique environment to sit eating or drinking while watching the world go by. It needs to be open more and allow alcohol to be served so it can be successful and support the local economy. I say give them what they ask for and make the community better. I'm sure that this request meets the council's aim- Continue to invest and regenerate our towns and villages to support our diverse places and communities to flourish.
