I cannot understand why this establishment should not be allowed to open past 6pm. It is surrounded on Peel Street by other establishments which offer drinking & dining many of which are allowed to serve past 6pm so to deny the owners of this business the same opportunity defies logic. In times when hospitality businesses are struggling, the council should be giving independent businesses of this type the encouragement & opportunity to make a success of it, especially taking into account the risks they are taking in terms of investment in their business.
