The owners of Oi Dumplings have worked hard to establish a base in Marsden when they could easily have opened somewhere else in the Manchester area. Due to their popularity they have now opened the cafe on Peel Street, formerly Marios, in order that more people can enjoy visiting them at different times of day. With so many other businesses on the same street being open and selling alcohol in the evenings, it seems ridiculous that Oi Dumplings are being so unfairly treated in this way and having their application refused and for very minor reasons. The couple are very responsible and I have no doubt they would ensure that any regulations would be adhered to.
