As a local resident, it seems unreasonable for this one establishment to be limited to 6pm given the other similar premises on the same street. Without a change to the current restrictions it is inevitable that this business will close - destroying jobs and to the detriment of the wider community. And in the context of the new government's focus on growth, this kind of award winning establishment is the exact kind of business we need to bring money and people into our area.
