

Remove some lower branches on the tree at number 50 and one larger one at 52. to lift the crown of the tree.

This will allow parking on drive/parking space below and reduce the large amount of bird muck landing on the cars

Apologies, I have already removed a couple of small branches from number 50's tree not aware restrictions were in place before asking a tree surgeon to look.

