The new houses at hillcrest view are inkeeping with the rest of the houses around. The site as it was before was over grown and could not be used by anyone. There was years of rubbish dumped on the site and it was constantly used as a dumping ground from those around it. Making the area an eyesore. I am pleased the land has been used wisely. Now it is a lovely development supplying much needed homes for new families in the colne valley.
