I fully believe that the planning permission on these houses should be granted, the houses are stunning and are line with the plots built in phase 1. I cannot see an issue with the impact on the houses on Carr top lane or clay well as the houses are of a great quality and add to the local community, I've lived in this village for 37 years and I don't see any better quality housing that provide stunning locations for young professional families. I don't understand the objections cited by a few individuals on the website, whom would rather see families having their beautiful homes taken away and no where to go but cite mental health as why they object to it. The houses absolutely add value to the local area. We purchased the house because of its beautiful appearance and features and I am over the moon with the house which is the forever house for my young family and I
