Further to your e-mail (enclosed) in connection with the above, I would like to confirm that the design of small retaining wall (800mm high) located perpendicular to Whitehall Road West will be exempt from a technical approval, however, I would like to add that the design of oversize manholes located in the highway will be subject to a formal technical approval. In view of this and before we can commence our review of the oversize manholes etc., the following fee will be payable by the developer.

- 1) Technical Approval for Category 0 Structures (oversize manholes with ID \leq 3.0m) - £371.00 (covering up to 5 hrs staff time). Any additional hours in excess of the allotted time including attending meetings/site meetings etc.. will be charged at £77.00/hr. e subject to a formal technical approval

Please advise the developer for the remittance of this fee by contacting
