The Application for planning permission, includes section 25, 'ownership certificates and agricultural land declaration' and this has been completed incorrectly. The agent/applicant has completed certificate A which is inaccurate and incorrect. The land identified and outlined in red within the application is owned by multiple persons both the applicant and additional land owners. The additional land owners own the field and land between the applicants field and/including the access gate to Far lane. This field is part of an agricultural holding. Failure to identify the additional land owners and agricultural land holding make the application form incorrect and therefore inadmissible.
