Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

Conversion of integral garage into living space.

Has the work already been started without consent?

- Yes
 No

Materials

Does the proposed development require any materials to be used externally?

- Yes
 No

Please provide a description of existing and proposed materials and finishes to be used externally (including type, colour and name for each material)

Type:

Walls

Existing materials and finishes:

House walls composed of red brick and off-white render, existing garage door to be replaced is grey.

Proposed materials and finishes:

Proposed replacement for garage door is red brickwork matching the adjacent house walls, with aperture for a window matching the colour and style of other windows in the house.

Type:

Windows

Existing materials and finishes:

Windows are uPVC double glazed units in grey (exterior)

Proposed materials and finishes:

Proposed window in garage aperture will match the style of other windows in the house.

Are you supplying additional information on submitted plans, drawings or a design and access statement?

- Yes
 No

Will any trees or hedges need to be removed or pruned in order to carry out your proposal?

- Yes
 No

Pedestrian and Vehicle Access, Roads and Rights of Way

Is a new or altered vehicle access proposed to or from the public highway?

- Yes
 No

Is a new or altered pedestrian access proposed to or from the public highway?

- Yes
 No

Do the proposals require any diversions, extinguishment and/or creation of public rights of way?

- Yes
 No

Parking

Will the proposed works affect existing car parking arrangements?

- Yes
 No

If Yes, please describe:

Garage conversion does, in theory, diminish existing car parking arrangements; however in practice the garage is only used as domestic storage and the driveway provides ample parking for a domestic family address (i.e. residents and visitors).

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

- It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

- Yes
 No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- Yes
 No
