To whom it may concern

I have just received your letter regarding planning for the above application number. I have high concerns regarding the privacy that myself and my family and neighbours are going to lose due to the position of the suggested bungalow.

From the looks of the plans, the people in the property will be able to see straight into my kitchen and my

When we bought this property never did we expect a bungalow to be built in such a private and quiet area of the estate. We have lived here for nearly 40 years and the lack of privacy this proposed dwelling will force upon myself and my family and indeed all the neighbours is quite upsetting and is causing extreme distress.

I am hereby putting my objection in writing and hope that you will take my families concerns into consideration.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely
