I'm sure the family's do not know of these plans which could mean their loved ones moving home at such a late stage in their lives . Some of the people living there have lived their lives in the area and have deep rooted family ties to the mirfield area . Are the staff aware of these changes which would mean job losses, some of them have worked there for many years and have formed strong bonds with the residents and family members . Do kirklees officers who work with old people know of these plans and have they any input into any decisions made by the planning committee. The whole process from start to now has been very cloak and dagger with staff been assured the plans were old and not relevant to the owners desire in moving the home forward when the staff questioned the management about the rumours . Please think of the residents who will be affected by all the changes, have they been consulted at all .
