Dear Charlotte HANCOCK Having supplied products to this house and knowing its history I am surprised the enforcement action you took. I can see from the supporting document from the consultant showing the number of applications and issue this house has had. You have given to the owner, The property sits 25 metres from the road. Causes no issue to any house. The people on the street have no problem with it. So why do you and your team, you got some vendetta or some inside influence ? The property is immaculate you should approve the application literally the day after consultation period ends. Thanks for your attention!!!
