I am for the stables being built but just not the position of them. I think they would be better so as not to interrupt anyone's view. Which can also reduce property value. The owners have put a lot of work into the land to make it look better, and also stop the flooding down the lane. Trees are going to be planted to help further with soaking up water and the look of the area. Having horses along with the hens, ducks and geese would also be a welcome view. The bridleway now has a poo bin at the bottom of the lane that the land owner empties weekly. So it will be kept clean and tidy.
