1. This application has been previously rejected on sensible and reasonable grounds. Why is this one different. Are the applicants just going to keep coming back until someone gives in? 2. The site doesn't even have access. It requires the demolition of a wall and an house to create this. All from a narrow road that is already busy with busses, HGVs and cars. Let's not forget the pedestrians that may actually want to walk along here. Is this not a serious accident waiting to happen? 3. Point 2 applies once again with the vehicles that will be used to essentially mine the site and transport it. 4. The environmental impact with regards to noise, dust aesthetics and pollution to the surrounding beautiful countryside. That includes, wildlife and residents. 5. Where is this coal been transported to and used for? Is that environmentally responsible? 6. So eventually if houses are built are these affordable. Is it another development that provides a further strain on GPs, dentist, schools, increases flood risk, traffic and deterioration of a main road with more pot holes.
