| This is an absurd concept on a number of different levels and must be reconsidered immediately. around the corner at Windmill school and the traffic in the area everyday is unsafe. People park where they want and Harefield Drive is one of the worst roads for this. Where would all the additional cars/traffic go? There isn't anywhere for it. We have a community in and around this address where it is safe for kids to play out on an evening. This would no longer be the case. I wouldn't feel safe letting Kids walk home from all the schools in the surrounding area and this also would no longer be safe. An increase in crime rates is inevitable. This will have a knock on effect on many many things but the biggest is the way of life for our community. Why should we all have to consider selling up and moving just because somebody has decided to introduce a residential school for naughty kids in to a private residential area?? If this goes through and something happens to any children in the area, blood is on the hands of whoever approved the planning permission. |    |
