Assessment

Description of development:

The application seeks planning permission for the erection of a single storey rear and side wraparound extension.

The proposed single storey rear extension will project 3.34m from the rear elevation of the existing building, with a maximum height of 3.86m, eaves height of 2.54m, and a width of 10.04m.

The proposed single storey side extension will project 3.67m from the side elevation of the existing house, with a maximum height of 5.38m, eaves height of 3.48m, and a depth of 10.7m.

The Kirklees SPD sets out that single storey rear extensions and single storey side extensions should comply with certain parameters set out at paragraphs 5.1, 5.15, 5.16, 5.17, and 5.6 on pages 23, 24, and 30 (and listed below) and if they do not, they need to be justified:

Rear extensions should:	Yes - COMPLY	No - JUSTIFY
Preserve a back garden of a reasonable size, with a general principle that at least half the garden area is retained	At least half of the current back garden will be retained, which is considered an acceptable amount.
Be set behind the original building, and not projecting beyond the sides	The rear extension will be set completely behind the building/proposed side extension and will not project beyond the sides of the building.
Maintain external access to the rear garden	The current external access to the rear garden via the North of the dwelling will remain.
Single storey rear extensions should:
be in keeping with the scale and style of the original house	The proposed wraparound extension will be subservient to the original house in scale and will be constructed using mostly materials to match the original house ensuring it fits the style.
not normally cover more than half the total area around the original house (including previous	Over half of the total area around the original house will remain extensions and outbuildings)	following the erection of the proposal.

not exceed 4 metres in height	The maximum height of the rear portion of the extension will be 3.86m, not exceeding 4m.
not project out more than 3 metres from the rear wall of the original house for semidetached and terraces houses or by 4 metres for detached properties	The rear extension will project 3.34m from the rear elevation of the existing building, not exceeding the 4m guideline for detached properties.
where they exceed 3m in length the eaves height should generally not exceed 2.5 meters		The eaves height of the proposal is 2.54m where the extension exceeds 3m in length, however, this is considered to be a negligible amount to that required with no significant impacts and is therefore considered acceptable.
retain a gap of at least 1 metre from a property boundary, such as a wall, fence or hedge		A gap of 0.55m is left to the South property boundary, however, given the neighbouring property to the South have also erected an extension that does not leave a 1m gap to the joint property boundary, it is considered that the proposal can be accepted in this instance.
Side extensions	Yes - COMPLY	No - JUSTIFY

Ensure reasonable levels of natural light to the habitable rooms in neighbouring properties	As the proposal is single storey and thus of a limited scale, it will ensure that reasonable levels of natural light is allowed to all habitable rooms in the neighbouring dwelling to the North.
Positioning windows to minimise or avoid any potential overlook into neighbouring gardens	Given that the extension is single storey, it is considered that no windows will have the vantage to facilitate potential overlooking into neighbouring gardens.
Single storey side extensions should:
not extend more than two thirds of the width of the original house	The extension projects 3.67m from the side elevation of the original house, which has a width of 6.42m. Considering this, the proposal does not extend more than two thirds of the width of the original house.
not exceed a height of 4 metres		The maximum height of the proposal is 5.38m, however, as the extension is not considered to have any significant impacts on the neighbouring dwelling this can be deemed acceptable in this instance.
be set back at least 500mm from the	The side extension is set back 960mm from original building line to allow for a visual break	the front elevation of the existing dwelling.

Design and Visual Amenity:

Summary of local street scene/character:

The application site refers to 7 New Street, a two-storey detached property faced in brick and stone with a tiled roof and uPVC windows. The dwelling lies in a varied street scene, surrounded by some properties of a similar style, age, and scale, but other semi-detached houses which appear older in age, and have differing styles and characteristics. The application dwelling also benefits from amenity space to the front, a hard-standing driveway area to the North, and a garden area to the rear.

Consideration has been given here in terms of the proposals impact on the local character and street scene, including subservience, terracing and building line.
