

Heritage Statement

Quaker Bottom is a historical settlement dating back to the late 16th century. Meaningful settlement began to take place when the Quakers, in particular John Firth, settled the area in the mid-17th century.

The design and construction of the proposed replacement door is based upon the historical design of the said door which was damaged as a result of a break-in.

.