The road is ridiculously narrow and therefore would be an absolute nightmare for all involved - given that the site is on a dangerous bend as it is with no speed controls in the area. All surrounding houses on the Combs have no parking as it is, therefore more risk of road parking with visitors guests etc. the business in question are quite clearly . This is not safe and should not be allowed and could be detrimental to Thornhill - how will the schools take all these extra people? Right next to a quiet park and cricket club. Neighbouring properties will be massively affected by this it's not suitable at all and the road cannot cope with this level of traffic and interruption,
