| This plan fits with local and national policies that support reusing buildings and creating spaces that bring people together while promoting wellbeing and equality. More than just a change of use, this is a chance to strengthen community bonds, encourage understanding between different groups and culturesMosques always take care to keep things quiet and respectful. Most activities happen indoors at set times, and measures are always in place to make sure neighbours aren't disturbed by noise or disruption.We're really looking forward to this improvement to the area | |
