I am writing to object about the proposed plan to build 50 houses off Gynn Lane. I am extremely worried about the inevitable increase in traffic and access to the site which would in my opinion be dangerous bearing in mind the number of cars accessing the site. I am also concerned about the diminishing of green space and protection of trees. There has already been a huge mount of new properties built in the immediate area and I don't think Honley has the infrastructure to support so many more people, including the Doctors and schools. Please reconsider where this huge amount of new houses will be built.
