I have previously submitted objections to this scheme and my wife and I also signed a petition last year against this development as did many others. After reading the latest revised additional information from the developer I would raise the following objections. Additional traffic generated by the completed development is being played down and will have a deleterious effect on existing housing along Gynn Lane and the immediate environment around it. New households not only use their own vehicles but require servicing via numerous grocery and internet deliveries. Postal and waste collection being additional factors. Proposals indicate there will be an "emergency waste collection point" for waste bins near the site entry. Why is this necessary and who will maintain it. It seems to assume the service road will not be adequate. Potentially this is likely to become an eyesore at least and worse still a further blot on the existing landscape.
