OBJECTION to planning permission for 9 Park Road ref: 2025/91511 and the October update 2025/60/91511/E

Although its commendable that finally something is being done by an eyesore that has deliberately been allowed to to vandalised, I strongly object to a characteristic building in the best street in Dewsbury for unique homes varying mainly in age from 100-150 years old, being DEMOLISHED. I've live in the next street, Alexandra Crescent for 37 years so have seen how this house used to look. The other half of the semi, similarly needs TLC, but definitely not destroying! I've painted oil paintings of 3 or 4 house on this street, way back in 1988, so its beauty is something to be admired and preserved. Please ask the owners to re-visit their plans or to buy a plot of land elsewhere if they are adamant in having a new build property. This street is part of the industrial heritage of Dewsbury's rich millowners from the past two centuries, so please let it not be destroyed.
Thank you
