This development will detrimentally effect the area, adding extra demand on already under funded resourses, not enough education provision, Drs surgery places. The infrastructure is not addressed the roads around the development are already insufficient for the current road use so adding to this would be terrible. Also the effect of taking away more open space for local people to appreciate is unacceptable. As the ward Councillor & local resident I object to any planned development of this area.
