

---

Sent: 03 September 2025 12:37
To: Postmaster <Postmaster@kirklees.gov.uk>
Subject: Application no. 2025/91857

I'm sending you this email to voice my concerns regarding my parents ,

They are very much afraid and panicking that an extension is to be built next door at the front of their home.

I care very much for their health and well being, not only will the extension block out natural light from their living room but the disruption from building etc will definitely make them very ill.

I do hope this email will overturn your decision