This planning application is a complete joke and must be costing Kirklees a fortune. The occupier previously had retrospective planning permission refused by Kirklees, then lost an appeal, and was ordered to remove the dormitory and return the roof to its original design. This new set of plans is identical to the current design of the house, which both Kirklees and the Planning Inspectorate have already deemed unacceptable. Planning permission must be refused, and the roof returned to its original design. If not, the entire planning system is rendered pointless.
