Hi William,

Rev H is what we have on our file.

Thanks

Jon

Good afternoon

Please ignore my previous email – I have gone through the documents and correspondence again and have worked out which ones are relevant. There is one specific query I have, however.

The agent has said that the current visibility splay drawing is now Rev H, not Rev G.

I have compared the drawings and the difference is very slight. Can you confirm that you are happy with Rev H for S38 and S278 purposes?

Regards
