I object to this application in the strongest terms . A 15mtr buffer zone to protect Ancient woodland is insufficient The notion of a 15meter buffer is a minimum requirement , it should not be accepted as adequate in any sense.A buffer in excess of 15 meters should be considered if this proceeds to mitigate the impact on the Ancient Woodland . I expect Kirklees to undertake an independent assessment in order to protect trees. I also object to the development and the impact that increased traffic , pollution and trampling will have .
