i am objecting on the following grounds <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Increased traffic through the estate which will be hazardous for residents young and old.2. Potential problems such as drugs, grooming and drinking that are often associated with these kind of residential homes3. Disruption and disturbance to family life of neighbours through antisocial behaviour.4. Loss of a family home on the estate due to the setting up of a business5. Title deeds to all properties on the estate include a claus that the owner will not carry out any trade or business on the property or in, on or from the dwelling erected thereon.
