My parents have lived on the same lane for over 20 yrs , it would be a nightmare to say the least the road is narrow and just getting through at the best of times is a nightmare parking is so limited , to bring the machinery etc ie noise the turmoil and anguish for everyone around and what they are planning the view what my parents have looked at would be gone , im totally against what this will bring ie to the environment and the people that have lived there the sheer level of stress and anxiety . This would be a massive mistake.
