

Temporary and permanent waste collection statement

The roads will be complete before the occupation of the first dwelling therefore we don't need a plan for temporary waste collection.

The approved site layout shows positions of bin storage areas and bin collection points.