I am writing to formally object to the proposed Eastfield development (Planning Ref: 2025/92776). This development would have a significant negative impact on our village and local environment. The site is Green Belt land, which should be protected from development. Part of the site lies within a high-risk groundwater protection area, and the application provides only minimal assessment of potential risks to Shepley Spring's drinking water. The proposal would increase traffic, congestion, and safety risks for pedestrians, schoolchildren, and local residents. It also threatens local woodland, village character, and the wellbeing of older and vulnerable neighbors due to noise and construction disruption. There is insufficient detail regarding overhead electricity pylons and potential vehicle access via public footpaths. For these reasons, I strongly urge that this application be refused. Thank you for considering my
