This will spoil the whole area and as green belt it should not be built on. The access road to this area could not support the amount of traffic and the school could not support the large influx of pupils given that there are already two or three new developments by the main road already. The developers comments that a playground will be built is ridiculous as there is one less than 25 m away on the school Playing Field. The A629 is already a dangerous road with multiple accidents and collisions and this will not help if this development is allowed to go ahead
