

DC Admin

From:
Sent: 20 October 2025 10:05
To: DC Admin
Subject: Proposed development in Lumb Lane

In spite of the changed proposal for the erection of dwellings in Lumb Lane it does not alter the fact that this is a green belt area and the new buildings will compromise the existing listed buildings close by and set a precedent for other development submissions.

This was always an agricultural facility with no parking provision and should not be listed as grey belt. Our previous objections stand. Lumb Lane should be protected as a green belt rural area.