I have lived in Mirfield 74 years I stongly object to any more houses being built Mirfield is full. Mirfield was called Mirefelt in the Domesday book in 1086, it was derived from mere meaning Lake, pond, Marsh describing a field near wetland.The field near the canal is very waterlogged and always has been because it is low laying. The traffic in Mirfield is so bad coming out of Hurst Lane to turn left or right to go through Mirfield takes at least 3 times of traffic lights to change. Mirfield is full I object to any more green spaces being built on. Please do not build and spoil our lovely town.
