The SHAPE facility provides a vital service for working parents and the developmental needs of children in the area. Its loss would place additional pressure on alternative, potentially already oversubscribed, facilities, necessitating increased travel and impacting the local community's quality of life. While an after school club has peak times, a residential development of apartments (especially if it involves multiple units) could generate a different, potentially more consistent, volume of traffic and on-street parking demand throughout the day and night.
