Birstall has worked hard to maintain its charm as a small village and its diversity of shops available to the community. Birstall already has several barber shops and facilities as well as many being a short distance away in Batley, so another potential site would not be needed. The adaptation to the character and history of the building needs to be taken in to consideration. These are heritage buildings with their own charm and history. Adapting these properties will remove the character and charm that Birstall has worked hard to build and
