I object to this, 1st and foremost privacy part of the the reason i bought this house was 2nd floor living area 2nd its very close to my property where i park my car and need access to my garage 3rd my natural light and view will significantly obscured 4th the aggravation of the build itself 5th the design company orange design have said many things in their report that are definitely inaccurate 6th this may effect house price not just for me but for all my neighbours 7th and final my personal mental health will probably effected by this
