I strongly object to this planning application. Whilst I do not live directly within this area I drive/ walk through a number of times a week due to friends living there, commuting or dance classes. I therefore know how difficult it is on those roads round there already. I do not believe the local roads can handle the additional traffic - volume and practically given how narrow a lot of the roads are. Mirfield in general is already so congested, services stretched and roads in a poor state. This is a completely unsuitable location for 75 more homes and the associated pressures on the local area it will add. It is also extremely sad to lose yet more green space. Please listen to the local residents and deny planning for this development
