This site is unsuitable for housing due to the poor access for traffic. 75 houses would mean at least 150 cars. One end of Wellhouse lane is effectively single track, and the other way goes past a junior school. The area is already heavily congested at school times, and more housing would inevitably make matters much worse. Also, the site is currently a green field, I'm sure there must be brown sites in the locality which could be developed without taking up more of our green space.
