My family has lived in many houses in lots of areas but Upper Cumberworth is the only place that feels like home. To change the village beyond recognition would be devastating, this peaceful place would be gone. And all of the animals in the woods would look to move away too. When I am old enough to buy my own house I think I will look to buy a small house somewhere with more things to do, do it up and then keep moving up the property ladder. I don't think I will want to live here when I'm in my twenties or thirties as I probably won't work nearby and there's not much to do for people that age. I think I would like to retire here though as long there was some green space left.
