I wish to strongly object to this proposed planning application of 123 houses on the land adjacent to Barnsley road. The land that the development wishes to build on is greenbelt land and should remain so. The size of the development is obscene for such a small rural village. There is an abundance of wildlife on and around this land, not to mention the harm that it will cause to ancient woodland that will border it. These woods are a huge benefit to everyone in this village and surrounding areas and should be protected above anything else. The people of Cumberworth chose to live or stay here because of the beautiful surrounding countryside. The traffic that would increase from the development would be of too high a volume for small country roads. Barnsley road is already extremely busy and more traffic will only add to the all the fatal and near fatal accidents that occur at the sovereign crossroads, and car lane and cross lane junctions not to mention the noise and pollution it will bring. There are barely any amenities in the village and public transport is very limited, there isn't even a bus that goes into Huddersfield town centre from upper Cumberworth so cars are a necessity, ergo, more traffic on the road. This land is in the local plan to stay as greenbelt and should remain so. There are already on going problems with our local utilities. There have been numerous burst water mains over the last year due to the already insufficient infrastructure not being able to cope with the current dwellings. To add another 123 to it will only cause more problems. Upper Cumberworth is a beautiful small village with an abundance of surrounding countryside. The open fields and far reaching views are part of its charm. Putting a huge housing estate in such a well loved area isn't going to bring anything to the village apart from problems. For these reasons I respectfully ask that this application is refused.
