| Firstly, to say that Latham lane is one long lane, half of which is busy and hectic all of the time. This adjoins Drub Lane which is very busy at peak times. Not a safe place at all. The country lane 'half', is a quiet, peaceful, relaxing environment filled with wildlife and beauty. A joy to lazily walk along. It is used frequently to dog walkers, hikers, horse riders and families with young children. I myself, took my children for their first bike ride without stabilisers, on that virtually traffic free country lane. To allow any additional access to traffic would be a mistake. In Gomersal, there is virtually nowhere as safe and quiet as Latham lane. It is a little garden of Eden to escape the traffic and selfish, dangerous and stupid behaviour of many drivers on our roads. Please do not consider adding any additional access roads to this part of Latham lane. Thank you |                              |
