Dear Sir or Madam,

Marsden New Mills, Brougham Road, Marsden, Huddersfield, West Yorkshire

I am writing to inform you that we have carried out an initial assessment to consider whether the above building should be added to the List of Buildings of Special Architectural or Historic Interest.

The Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport has asked us to consider this application in our role as the Government's statutory adviser on the historic environment with responsibility for listing. We have now considered the application and completed an assessment of the building based on the material provided. The Secretary of State has decided not to add Marsden New Mills, Huddersfield to the List at this time.

Please follow the link below to download a copy of the report setting out the reasons for this decision.

If you consider that this decision has been wrongly made you may contact the Department for Culture, Media and Sport within 28 days of the date of this letter to request that the Secretary of State review the decision. An example of a decision made wrongly would be where there was a factual error or an irregularity in the process which affected the outcome. You may also ask the Secretary of State to review the decision if you have any significant evidence relating to the special architectural or historic interest of the building which was not previously considered. Further details of the review criteria and process and how to request a review are contained in the annex to this letter.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of any further assistance. Further information can also be found on our website at <https://historicengland.org.uk/listing/what-is-designation>.

Yours sincerely

Annex 1

Review Criteria and Process

A review will only be carried out:

- if there is significant evidence that the original decision was wrong
- where there was a significant factual error
- where there was irregularity in the listing process
- if there is significant evidence which was not previously considered about the special architectural or historic interest of the building in a national context

Having conducted a review, the Secretary of State will either uphold, amend or overturn the original decision. It is important to understand that the original decision will stand until the Secretary of State has decided whether the original decision should be upheld, amended or overturned. If the original decision is amended or overturned, this will not have retrospective effect.

How to request a review of a listing decision

Reviews are carried out by the Department of Culture, Media and Sport and review requests should be made on the Department's 'Listing Review Request Form' and submitted to review.requests@dcms.gov.uk. The form is accompanied by guidance to assist you in making a review request. Submissions that do not follow the guidance may result in your request being denied. Both the form and the guidance can be downloaded from the Department for Culture, Media and Sport's website at:

<https://www.gov.uk/how-to-challenge-our-decision-to-list-or-not-list-a-building>

If you are unable to access the website please contact:
