- additional pressure on local services that cannot cope; schools, GP's, Dental Surgery's - Removal of green belt land which affects nature and animals - Increased traffic and pollution on White Lee Road which is already struggling - Additonal accidents on the turning out of Sunny View on to White Lee Gardens. This is already excessive at peak times - Privacy of residents on the street already - There are a large number of children on the existing estate that play in the streets and this would be impacted by increased traffic and the building of the development, putting them at risk
